

Thao Huynh

Thao is a stylist who specializes in hair color and hair extensions. Thao is continually looking for opportunities to add to her knowledge base by attending classes and seminars held around the US. Along with many other classes and seminars, Thao has completed her certification with Hair Dreams, a company that is known for their high standards in human hair extensions. Native to Vietnam, Thao has been in the U.S. for over five years, and understands the importance of working hard to provide high end service, as she has worked her way to being a class 'A' stylist. Outside of the salon, Thao loves to travel, but maintains that her true passion is using her talents to make people look great and feel even better.
